A Letter from Rev. Adrian Guthrie

Dear Friends,

This is the second letter I have written for the April magazine as the first one didn't seem relevant any longer following the government and Church of England instructions in relation to the Coronavirus.

We find ourselves in a very difficult and unprecedented situation in much of the world, but with the possibility that it could bring us all closer together at a time when we are required to keep our distance from one another. We may not be able to meet together either in churches or in other places for a period of time, but through prayer and serving one another in new ways, we can draw closer to God and one another.

The Alcester Minster Church website will include links to helpful material to help our prayer life and other information, and so will our Facebook page and Twitter account. However, we plan to also provide communications in a paper form for those who are not internet users. This extended period of isolation might cause some people to feel lonely, so please ring one of the Ministry Leadership Team if you are anxious about anything or simply want to have a chat, or would like one of them to pray with you. The numbers are included on page 4 under Church Services

We also aware that there will be some people in our community who will not be able to earn a living during this period of shut-down and may find themselves without food for themselves or their family. The Arden Food Bank aims to be open as normal on Tuesdays and Fridays – please consult the website for details - arden.foodbank.org.uk.

Even though public worship is suspended for the time being, most of the churches of the minster will be open during the day for individual prayer, and I plan to circulate around the churches during this period to pray for world, country, parish and individual needs so that a rhythm of prayer is maintained in our churches and communities. We aim to leave some aids for prayer and other helpful resources and activities to help us continue to engage with God, and keep our faith and hope in him alive during these testing times.

Although we won't be able to remember Jesus' death or celebrate his resurrection in public worship this year, they remain the basis of our faith. Receiving Jesus' death on the cross personally as the only way our self-centredness can be forgiven, our consciences cleansed and a relationship with God redeemed, turns a very dark day into 'Good Friday'. And when Jesus rose again, he gave us the opportunity to turn the only certainty in our life (our death) from a negative to a positive – death can be transformed into eternal life as a result of Jesus' victory over the grave. 'Thine be the glory, risen conquering son!'

With every blessing,

Adrian

Nature jottings from Perrymill Lane

The frequent and heavy rain this month have made the field footpaths so muddy that we've limited our walks to the lanes. However, wildlife continues to be active in the garden and hedgerows and the following sightings were recorded.

14th Feb. My attention was attracted by feathers floating down from an oak tree in our neighbours' garden. When viewed through binoculars the source seemed to be a Carrion Crow plucking and eating a Wood Pigeon in the tree.

21st Feb. We had a prolonged view of a Sparrowhawk sitting on our garden fence and were able to appreciate its lovely markings. Later, on a walk along Wike Lane, we saw a large mixed flock of Siskins and Lesser Redpolls feeding in the beech and larch trees.

26th Feb. A Little Owl could be heard calling across the field behind our house. Today I learned that the first Avocets of the year have arrived at Upton Warren.

29th Feb. As we drove just south of the Bidford Gliding Club we were please to see two kestrels hovering.

1st March. Phil was please to report sightings from his early morning run along Middletown Lane. These included long-tailed Tits, Buzzards and deer.

2nd March. We noticed a large flock of Fieldfares, Redwings and Starlings in Wike Lane. A Little Owl was again calling close to the house.

2nd March. Peter reported several sightings in and around his Middletown Lane garden including a Bullfinch, Muntjacs, Tawny Owls and a Fox.

3rd March. I was surprised to see a pair of Mallards waddling past the end of our rear garden – an indication of the amount of surface water around.

7th March. In a rare spell of pleasant weather, we took a 9:30am walk along Wike Lane and were entertained by bird song delivered by Song Thrushes, Chaffinches, Robins, Blackbirds and Great Tits. Wild garlic was growing well in the verges.

On a drive to Hampshire we saw more Red Kites than we've ever seen before on this journey, the first ones noted soon after Stow on the Wold with more in Oxfordshire. I'm used to seeing large numbers where the M40 crosses the Chilterns, but they seem to be spreading their range.

9th March. A flock of 100+ Fieldfares, Redwings and Starlings was moving between the grass and the trees, performing a "mini murmuration" in the Phil J 01527 892043 (12th March)

Spring has arrived at Coughton Court... National Trust

There's lots to see and do at Coughton this spring whether you're visiting for the first time or pop in often, whether you're here for a short visit or to spend the whole day. Here are a few suggestions to help you make the most of your visit.

Whether it's 600 years of history in the house, tales of the infamous Gunpowder Plot, beautiful displays of spring flowers in the award-winning gardens or countryside walks around the ancient bluebell wood, there's plenty to explore and fill your day with. Coughton is very much a family home with an intimate feel and the Throckmorton family still live here today. Our 2020 exhibition, Secret & Sacred, highlights the Throckmorton's Catholic faith and helps us to understand the experiences of those persecuted for their religion.

The Throckmorton family created and continues to manage the spectacular award-winning gardens here at Coughton Court. There is something for everyone to enjoy throughout the seasons and highlights include the roses in the walled garden, daffodils around the lake and the plentiful vegetable garden, orchard and bog garden. Travel a little further over to Timms Grove and you'll find our beautiful bluebell wood, covered in a thick carpet of bluebells from late April.

Spring has arrived and there are lots of things in the house and garden for families to enjoy, as well as family fun events in the school holidays. The Throckmorton family spent long days relaxing by the river, playing garden games and spending quality time together and we'd love you and your family to follow in their footsteps.

Don't miss a fantastic opportunity to create your own piece of embroidery inspired by the beautiful cope, stitched by Catherine of Aragon on our first Embroidery Workshop, Thursday 23 April. Previous experience would be helpful, and tea & coffee is included. £25 per person, for more details and to book please visit our website.

We hope to see you and whole family this spring, don't forget we're

Both Pat and Geoff would like to thank them for their kindness at taking on this role

Coughton & Sambourne 100 Club

The March winner of £100 was Jo Gladstone now living in Stratford. Jo, a previous winner in 2011, is a former resident of Coughton who has continued supporting us from when we started in 2010. Congratulations Jo!!

As promised, the prize money is being increased and the April Jackpot draw will be for £450. This draw will be made at Coughton on Sunday 5th at 10.30am.

The Organisers would welcome new members and by joining you would not only be helping to maintain the churches in both Sambourne and Coughton but also have every chance of winning a cash prize each month. You should contact Peter Laband (01527 893879) or John McTavish (01789 764703) to be included in the monthly bit of fun.

Well, our beefburger lunch at Sambourne went very well and raised £72 for Church funds.

There will not be another lunch until May 12th, when it will be Home made Pizzas and fruity meringues – donations to the Farming Community Network. The FCN do so much to support our farmers financially and emotionally, with the damage and financial insecurity caused by floods and climate change, the uncertainty of Brexit, and the mental strain that they constantly face.

We are very sorry but everything has been cancelled due to the Corona virus, please do not hesitate contact myself Pat N
